

FREE Geography Teachers CPD Weekend

14th-15th October 2017

Includes Accommodation and Meals

Showcasing the fieldwork opportunities for the new GCSE, AS and A Level specifications on the Isle of Purbeck in Dorset - The Gateway to the Jurassic Coast and a world of idyllic natural history.

This offer is presented by Leeson House Field Studies Centre in partnership with The Swanage Centre

What is on offer?

Following the success of our CPD Weekend last year, Leeson House & The Swanage Centre are once again offering a FREE weekend consisting of site visits, practical fieldwork sessions, talks & full board accommodation.

The free weekend is the 14th -15th October 2017

Availability is limited so please contact us as soon as possible if you have any questions, or to book your place.

What will the weekend entail?

- Introduction to fieldwork on the Isle of Purbeck.
- Opportunities for A Level independent investigations connected to The Water Cycle and Coastal Landscape Systems
- Landscape, geology and coastal processes for GCSE – tour of the Isle of Purbeck and a visit to Durdle Door.
- Talk and activities on coastal management in Swanage Bay and discussion on the opportunities to study fluvial landscapes at GCSE.
- Talk on the growth of the Bournemouth, Poole, Christchurch conurbation.
- Fieldwork to study urban regeneration in Boscombe.
- Highcliffe and Barton on Sea looking at coastal management.
- Travel to Bournemouth to look at the opportunities for AS and A Level fieldwork on shaping places, making spaces and place identity.

Who provides what?

- All meals and accommodation will be provided by The Swanage Centre.
- Field studies will be provided by skilled Leeson House Tutors.
